NEW ACTIVITIES ANNOUNCED! JOIN US AT LAB LIVE: WHY OH WHY?

Join us for a STEAM extravaganza at the Imagination Lab with OKIDO Magazine, with over 15 hands-on, interactive and experimental activities to inspire the next generation of scientists, makers and inventors!

On Saturday 29th and Sunday 30th September, we're transforming the Lab and taking over the 12,000sq ft Engine Hall, where our team of makers and creators will be running activities for all the family. Get creative with everything from LEGO robots to rocket launching. There are full day or half day tickets for this event.

Activity highlights include:

- Build a Robot with LEGO and code it to remove plastic from the Thames.
- Make and decorate x-ray glasses to see inside the human body.
- Launch a rocket to explore what causes lift-off.
- Learn about sound vibrations using our giant telecommunication device.
- Create a creature and choose their habitat as part of our team art mural.
- Challenge the fundamentals of flight with an aeronautical engineer.

WORKSHOP FOR PARENTS: OVERCOMING YOUR CHILD'S FEARS AND WORRIES

Date: Wednesday 26th September

Time: 9:30am with coffee available from 9:00am

Venue: Roxton Primary School

We are able to accommodate a small number of children if alternative childcare arrangements cannot be made.

The session will be around 90 minutes and aims to:

- ✓ Help parents to better understand what anxiety looks like in children and young people
- ✓ Consider the different factors that lead children to feel anxious
- ✓ Help parents to think about things they can do to manage anxiety and build confidence children.

If you are interested in attending this workshop please go to the following link:
